After the Success of Mi7 Hero TAB, iZOTRON Launches Quattro Mi7 III, a WiFi Tablet PC

NEW DELHI, September 14, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- iZOTRON, a big name in the arena of electronic engineering, after the successive wins of its flagships Mi7 Hero and Mi7 Hero BETA, has rolled out a new marvel with the name 'Quattro Mi7 III' - a Wi-Fi Tablet wrapped in excellence. The very latest from iZOTRON is available for purchase on all leading virtual marketplaces, such as Flipkart, Amazon, eBay, etc.

There are only a fistful of brands, which don't shy away from providing a progressive fusion of high specifications and low cost. iZOTRON is no different. Quattro Mi7 III has a thick hype around itself for being a gadget that charts a definite agenda of utility with cost. Engineered while staying abreast of the most recent developments and trends, the device assures terrific functioning at a sensible budget cut.

"Catering to the day-to-day activities of people has been the single line of thought behind Quattro Mi7 III. This is an ideal device at an ideal price for reading, listening to music and light gaming. We are confident that customers will find it extremely enjoyable to work on this," says Varun Goyal, Director of NookStore Overseas Pvt Ltd.

Fitted with 1.3GHz Quad-Core Processor, Android Lollipop 5.1, 1GB RAM and 3G Connectivity via external dongle, Quattro Mi7 III exudes a sense of winning with respect to performance, power and efficiency. Speaking about the camera focus and resolution, the device has a 2MP rear camera and a 0.3MP selfie camera, finely-tuned to capture wonderful pictures. A 3600 mAh Lithium-Polymer battery is another plus, as it ensures longevity of the battery life.

A feature-rich tablet by its characteristics, Quattro Mi7 III offers a full-cut storage of 8GB to save scores of data and documents with no snags at all. Going by the magnitude of specifications integrated into it, the device is likely to have a safe sail in the market.
